SHOPRITE CHECKERS WOMEN OF THE YEAR AWARD NOMINATION FORM CLOSING DATE: FRIDAY, 30 APRIL 2010

The search has begun for South Africa's most outstanding women of the year in 2010. These women will receive the newly announced Shoprite Checkers Women of the Year Award. This Award now honours exceptional, visionary women who, whilst achieving greatness in their own fields, have the determination and foresight to make an impact on the future of many fellow South Africans living in a challenging society. You are invited to nominate any women whom you believe are deserving of the Award as heroines in any of our future five categories. Three finalists will be announced in each category. The winner in each category will personally receive R30 000 in cash and R100 000 towards her programme that aims to create a better future in South Africa.

Furthermore you are invited to also nominate an esteemed South African whom you believe has inspired generations of people during her or his lifetime. The Shoprite Checkers Women of the Year Award will also celebrate a Lifetime Achiever who will receive R100 000 to donate to a cause that the recipient believes will improve the lives of South Africans in future.

PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING CAREFULLY BEFORE COMPLETING THIS NOMINATION FORM:

AWARD CRITERIA

The criteria for the Award focus on the character of the individual, her ability and achievements and how her work impacts on the problems of South African society. The work of these women must be significant in terms of creating a better future for South Africans. It must show a desire to do something about the problems South African society faces as these difficulties all have the potential to damper our future.

STRENGTH AND DETERMINATION - The nominee must have achieved her goals despite and against all odds and have the strength to overcome the greatest of obstacles, resolve problems and be determined to attain a positive outcome.

ADAPTABILITY AND HUMANITY - It must be a characteristic of the nominee to adapt fast and efficiently to changing circumstances while being steered by a value system that treasures the reality that a person is only a person through other people.

VISION AND MODESTY - The nominee must have a broader vision of the challenging society in which South Africans live to create a better future. She must also show modesty and rather than boasting, prefer to be understated and not to be very vocal about achievement.

LEADERSHIP - Great leadership has changed the destiny of this country. A nominee in this Award must have the leadership ability to affect human behaviour to accomplish a mission and must be capable of influencing people to achieve set goals.

INTEGRITY - The nominee must act according to values, beliefs and principles that shape the future for the better. A nominee for the Award must subscribe to actions of integrity.

AWARD CATEGORIES

The five categories focus on identified social needs that will have a positive impact on the future of the country:

HEALTH CARE-GIVERS - South Africans deserve sustainable, well-managed and efficient health care. The nominee must work as either a professional or volunteer to help people in South Africa receive optimum health care now and in the future. It could mean healing or caring for ill people or looking for solutions to prevent, treat and manage illness.

CORNER SHOP TO BIG BUSINESS MAKERS - South Africa has a strong entrepreneurial business culture, boasting everything from corner shops to big business. It is seen as a powerhouse of the African continent. The nominee must as an entrepreneur, manager or worker have made a significant contribution to the success of a specific sustainable business or business in general throughout the year. The future prospects of the business must be encouraging.

EDUCATORS - Education is still in the process of transition in South Africa. It continues to hold the key to a brighter future for South Africa. The nominee should work as either a professional or volunteer educating the people of South Africa. This could mean teaching, developing and/or researching programmes and methods for a better educated country.

GOOD NEIGHBOURS - South Africans have a proud history of uplifting the community, fighting poverty and standing up for human rights to progress, but crime has become one of the most devastating social illnesses in the country. In this category the focus is on the character of the nominee and her ability and achievements in combating the root causes of crime. She must take a stance against crime and the focus of her work must be on the perceived things in the community that sparks crime.

YOUTH MOVERS - South Africa has countless of talented young people with the potential to achieve against the best in the world. Their potential must, however, be realised and they must be helped towards achievement away from crime. The nominee must work on youth issues or fight to correct social injustices that take young people off the straight and narrow.

The time frame for achievement in the five categories of the Award focuses on the current and the recent past and the achievement and its impact must have occurred only up to three years prior to the Award year. Therefore between April 2007 and April 2010.

LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD - This Award will celebrate a single South African who during her or his lifetime has inspired generations through changing times and trends. The recipient must have been true to her- or himself and would have maintained integrity and commanded the respect from peers. The Award will go to a South African who, through action and conduct, have inspired others and lived by the definition above.

There is no time frame for the Lifetime Achievement Award.
